

Lead Time

The time from when the forecast is issued until the occurrence of the event that is forecasted to happen. For example, a forecast issued on Monday for a storm to make landfall on Friday has a four-day lead time.