

Probabilistic forecast

A weather / climate forecast that gives information about the expected weather or climate conditions, as well as the probability of those conditions (e.g. 20% chance of at least 10 mm of rain tomorrow). This differs from deterministic forecasts, which do not include information on the uncertainty in the prediction.

Also see: Ensemble Prediction Systems