

Step 4: Test EAP in simulation or drill

---

The coordinator of the drill or controller will explain the methodology and roles prior to activation of the exercise. The script will drive the sequence of events, messages and situations/challenges, from which participants will take decisions. The controller may intervene if actions or decisions do not reflect a real early action scenario. Evaluators and observers should be located within the area of the exercise, but shall not interrupt the simulation.